4.1 No dividends on Capital. No dividends shall be declared or paid with respect to member capital contributions.

4.2 Patronage Dividends. The Co-op shall return the Co-op's net distributable surplus to its members annually as a patronage dividend, subject to the provisions of this Article 4. As used in the Co-op's Articles of Incorporation and these bylaws, the term "net distributable surplus" means (a) the annual earnings from the Co-op's sales attributable to the patronage of its members minus (b) any reserves the Board of Directors decides to retain for necessary or appropriate business purposes or contingencies. The Co-op shall calculate members' patronage dividends in proportion to their purchases from the Co-op during the year, subject to the provisions of this Article 4. The Co-op shall be entitled to take into account losses for prior years when calculating its net distributable surplus.

4.3 Annual Determination. The Board of Directors shall decide after the close of the Coop's fiscal year whether a net distributable surplus exists for that year, how and when to distribute patronage dividends and any other related matters, based on the Board's policies. The Board of Directors may elect not to declare or distribute a patronage dividend if it is in the best interest of the Co-op. Under Article VI of the Co-op's Articles of Incorporation, however, the Board of Directors may not forgo a patronage dividend more than once every other fiscal year.

4.4 Payments and Compliance. The Co-op shall pay patronage dividends within the time frames provided in, and according to the Internal Revenue Service Code and Treasury Department regulations to qualify for income tax deductions for the Co-op. The Co-op may distribute patronage dividends in cash, merchandise credits, a qualified written notice of allocation or a non-qualified written notice of allocation as defined in 26 U.S.C. Section 1388, other property, or any combination of these methods as the Board of Directors may determine from time to time. Any patronage dividend distributed as a qualified written notice of allocation or a non-qualified written notice of allocation shall be designated as such by the Board of Directors in accordance with the provisions of 26 U.S.C. Section 1388. Any part of a patronage dividend that the Board of Directors elects not to pay in cash, merchandise credits or other property is called the retained patronage dividend.

4.5 Application of Retained Patronage Dividend. The Board of Directors may apply any part of a member's retained patronage dividend to cover that member's unpaid membership dues or capital contributions for that year and future years. The Co-op shall hold the retained patronage dividends in revolving patronage dividend accounts in the names of the receiving members, and may apply the retained patronage dividends toward the Co-ops operating capital needs. Members will not accrue interest or other monetary return on investment, and the accounts are non-transferable and in whole dollars only. The Co-op shall be entitled to offset against retained patronage dividend accounts the amount of any losses subsequently sustained by the Co-op in such manner as the Board of Directors may reasonably determine.

4.6 Repayment of Retained Patronage Dividends. At any time, the Co-op may pay some or all of the retained patronage dividends to qualifying members if the Board of Directors decides the funds are no longer required for operating capital. Members will receive retained patronage dividends in the order of the oldest outstanding amounts on a pro rata basis from these amounts. If the Co-op dissolves as a corporation, it shall pay retained patronage dividends to members after payment of all other liabilities, if the remaining funds are insufficient to repay all retained patronage dividends members will receive retained patronage dividends in proportion to their revolving account balances at the time of dissolution. The Board of Directors may also repay an individual member's retained patronage dividends under compelling circumstances in the Board's discretion. Retained patronage dividends are available at all times to pay amounts otherwise due and payable to the Co-op. The Board of Directors may in its discretion pay retained patronage dividends to qualifying members in cash, as merchandise credits, or any combination of cash and merchandise credits. The Board of Directors may in its discretion establish the terms and conditions governing the issue and use of merchandise credits, including any period within which merchandise credits must be used or forfeited.

4.7 Unclaimed Dividends. If the Co-op wishes to pay retained patronage dividends to any member who holds a revolving patronage dividend account, but such payment fails to reach such member via a single mailing through U.S. first class mail at such member's last known address on file with the Co-op, such member shall be deemed to have contributed such payment entitlement to the Co-op and the Board of Directors may, by appropriate action, pay such amount to all other active members who hold revolving patronage dividend accounts as a supplemental patronage dividend in the same ratio that such members would then be entitled to patronage dividends.

4.8 Treatment of Nominal Amounts. The Board of Directors may exclude from distribution any patronage dividend that is so small that it does not justify the cost of distribution. These nominal amounts may not be distributed at any time to other members.

4.9 Tax Provision. If the Co-op distributes part of its annual earnings or income as a patronage dividend, and then discovers it cannot deduct some part of its annual earnings or income as a patronage dividend under the Internal Revenue Code and applicable regulations, then the Co-op and its Board of Directors deem that all of the patronage dividend declared shall come from earnings or income that does qualify for a deduction under the revenue laws. This designation shall occur regardless of whether the Board of Directors adopted a resolution or act that makes specific reference to the source of revenues for the dividend.

4.10 Consent of Member to Tax Treatment. By joining the Co-op, all members consent to having their patronage dividends, whether paid or retained, taken into account for the taxable year. Any patronage distribution the Co-op makes with a qualified written notice of allocation under 26 U.S.C. Section 1388 will be taken into account by the receiving member at the stated dollar amount of the distribution as provided in 26 U.S.C. Section 1385(a) in the taxable year the member receives the written notice of allocation.

7.5 Action by Consent. Decisions of the Board of Directors may be made without a meeting if consent to such decision is made in writing, stating the action to be taken, is signed by all of the Directors and filed with the minutes of meetings.

ARTICLE 8 COMMITTEES:

8.1 Executive Committee. The committee shall consist of at least three Directors, and shall include the Board Chair, Board Vice Chair, and Finance Committee Chair. Any action by the Executive Committee shall require the affirmative vote of at least three (3) of its members and must be reported to and ratified by the Board of Directors at the next following meeting of the Board of Directors. In addition the Board members elected in October of 2010 will serve a term of three years and three months instead of three years. 10.2 Bonding. The Treasurer, General Manager and other employees disbursing funds of the Co-op may be required to be bonded in amounts and on terms determined by the Board of Directors.

10.3 Indemnification rights. Subject to limitations in this Article, the Co-op shall indemnify its current and former Directors and Officers against all losses and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, to which they may become subject by reason of their positions with the Co-op or their service in its behalf. Such indemnification shall apply whenever such person is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative. The Co-op shall advance the cost incurred in defending a suit or proceeding. Payment of expenses incurred in defending a suit or proceeding in advance of its final disposition may be made only upon receipt by the Co-op of a contractual undertaking by such person to repay such amounts unless the person shall be determined to be entitled to indemnification under this Article. This may be covered by an "Errors and Omissions" insurance policy carried by the Co-op.

10.4 Limitations to indemnification. No indemnification shall be provided in connection with any action by or in the right of the Co-op. No indemnification shall be provided unless the person is determined to have acted in good faith or in the reasonable belief that his or her action was in the best interests of the Co-op or, in regard to criminal actions, that such person had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her action was unlawful. If such determination is not made in a legal proceeding related to the claim, it may be made by a quorum of disinterested Directors or by independent legal counsel selected by such quorum. If not made or able to be made by either, the determination shall be made by independent legal counsel at a membership meeting. 11.2 Waiver of Notice. Any notice of a meeting may be waived in writing at any time before or after the meeting. The attendance of any person at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of the meeting except where the person attends for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully convened.

ARTICLE 12 BYLAWS:

12.1 Severability. In the event that any provision of these bylaws is determined to be invalid or unenforceable under any statute or rule of law, then such provision shall be deemed modified to conform with such statute or rule of law without affecting the validity or enforceability of any other provision of these bylaws.

12.2 Amendment of By-laws. These By-laws may be amended by the Board; but any amendment adopted by the Board shall be reported to the annual meeting of the Co-op and, if not affirmatively approved and ratified thereat, shall cease to be in effect. Amendments by the Board shall take effect, if at all, on the date so ratified. By-laws may be adopted, repealed or amended on the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members, stockholders or delegates voting thereon at a meeting held after due written notice setting forth the proposed action and the purpose of the meeting.
